

Urban and Roadside Tree Planting

Trees should be planted 12 feet from the roadway and 40 feet from each other. Trees should not be planted within 40 feet of an intersection, on the "inside" of a road curve, or in other places where a full-grown, adult tree would obstruct a driver's view.

NO TREES

At least 40 feet between roadside trees. Even more for large trees.